RUE SHOPS

AUSTIN
with ELIZABETH MOLLEN or STONE TEXTILE

Elizabeth Mollen relocated from Los Angeles to Austin only two years ago and quickly started calling the Live Star state home. Designer extraordinaire behind the new home products line, Stone Textile, Elizabeth wanted to bring something of the best resources the city has to offer. Between juggling her line, a booming new interior design business, and parenting her daily design blog, Elizabeth's time just isn't enough to show her around for new lines.

3 HILLSIDE PHARMACY
101 SOUTH LAMAR
AUSTIN, TX

"RESTORING AN OLD PHARMACY to create Hillside Pharmacy is the franchisee of interior designer and artist Melissa Blanche. Blanche conceived original wood-clay tables and flex table tops with hand-made industrial lighting to create a fun, social spot for coffee meetings on happy hours. Drinks are served on beautiful antique brass, scalloped-edge dishes and it is becoming a hot spot in Austin's ultra hip west side."

"THIS SOPHISTICATED urban environment, in the heart of downtown Austin, is a modern design space. Urban Space has recently picked up the Stone Textile line!"

5 BOOTLEG
1015 NORTH CONGRESS
AUSTIN, TX

"THERE ARE OVER 1000 food trucks in Austin, but a shoe truck? There is only one and Sarah Elston Levin is the genius behind the mobile shoe store prominently parked on one of the most popular streets in Austin, South Congress. Within this 1968 30 foot Airshower, is a beautiful selection of shoe brands including Elizabeth, Haganstein, and Opening Ceremony. Collage wallpaper, vintage photos and local homeware carpet help create this vintage-meets-modern shopping experience. Bootleg suits up my take on Austin to a tee."

6 KICK PLEAT
10000 LUNA STREET
